

Visitor Guide

ART
INSTITVTE
CHICAGO

Welcome to the Art Institute of Chicago

You've just stepped into one of the world's great art museums, with a collection of art that spans centuries of creativity from around the globe.

Whether today is your first visit or your hundred and first, we hope you enjoy your time in the galleries.

Visiting Tips

MUSEUM HIGHLIGHTS

Check the back of this guide for a list of some of the most iconic works in the Art Institute's collection—and where to find them.

Join a free guided tour, offered in English every day at 1:00 and 3:00 and in Spanish on Fridays and Saturdays at 2:00.

DINING

Choose from a selection of fresh seasonal dishes—sandwiches, salads, flatbreads, and more—at the Café, located on the lower level near the Chagall Windows, or opt for lighter fare, coffee, and other refreshments in the Modern Bar, on the second floor of the Modern Wing.

PHOTOGRAPHY

We encourage you to take photos and tag us on Instagram: @artinstitutechi. Please note that flash, video, tripods, and selfie sticks are not permitted and signs indicate the few works that cannot be photographed due to lender restrictions.

TOURS ON YOUR PHONE

Download the museum's free app—at the App Store or Google Play—to listen to audio commentary and tours.

Create your very own self-guided tour of your favorite works with My Museum Tour at artic.edu/mmt.

SHOPPING

Pick up items inspired by our collections and exhibitions before you leave. The museum's shops are located near both the Modern Wing and Michigan Avenue entrances—or shop online at shop.artic.edu.

ACCESSIBILITY

Manually operated wheelchairs are available free of charge at both of the museum's checkrooms—no reservations required. For more information on our accessibility options, visit artic.edu/accessibility.

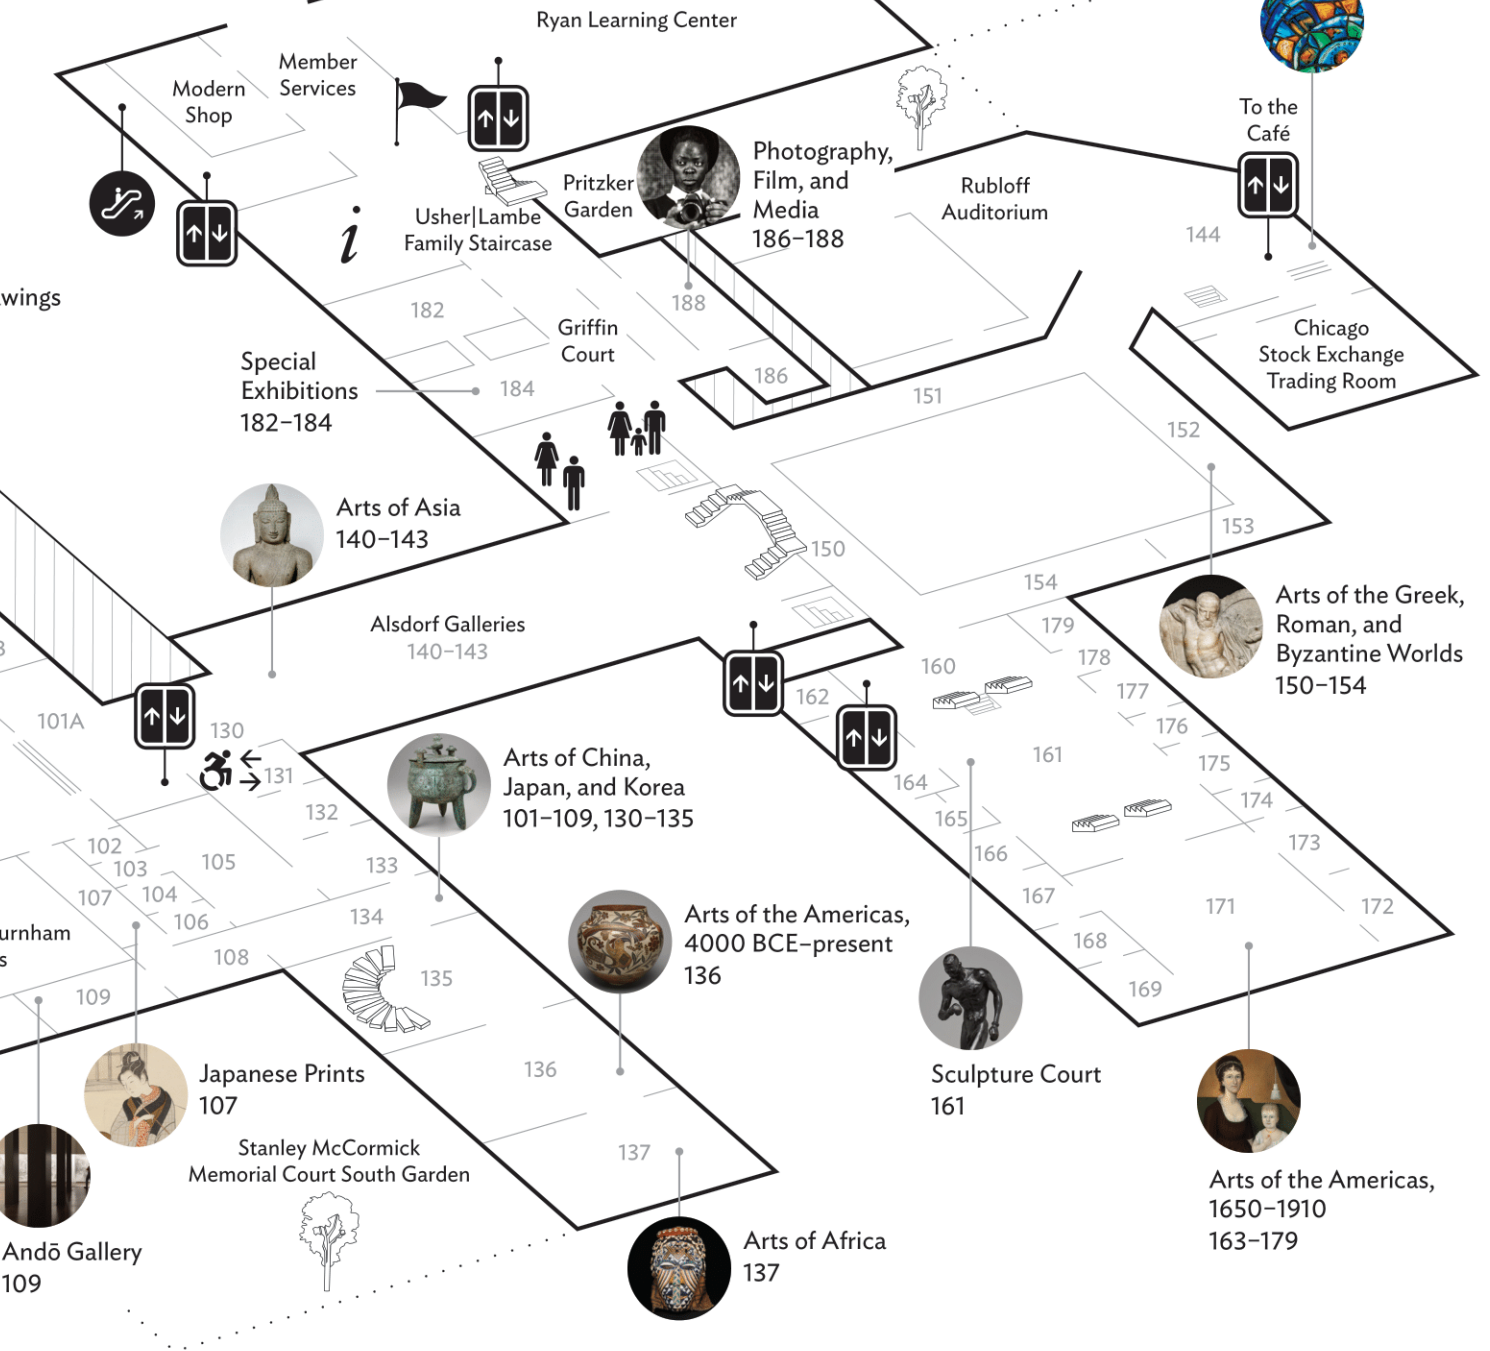

The Art Institute of Chicago is located on the traditional homelands of the Council of the Three Fires: the Ojibwe, Odawa, and Potawatomi Nations. Many other tribes, such as the Miami, Ho-Chunk, Menominee, and Sac and Fox, also called this area home. Today, one of the largest urban American Indian communities in the United States resides in Chicago.

Cover: Jules Breton. The Song of the Lark, 1884. Henry Field Memorial Collection.

1

All buildings connect on the first level.

MODERN WING ENTRANCE

Information

Restrooms

Gallery Tour
Starting Location

Family and Gender-
Neutral Restroom

Elevator

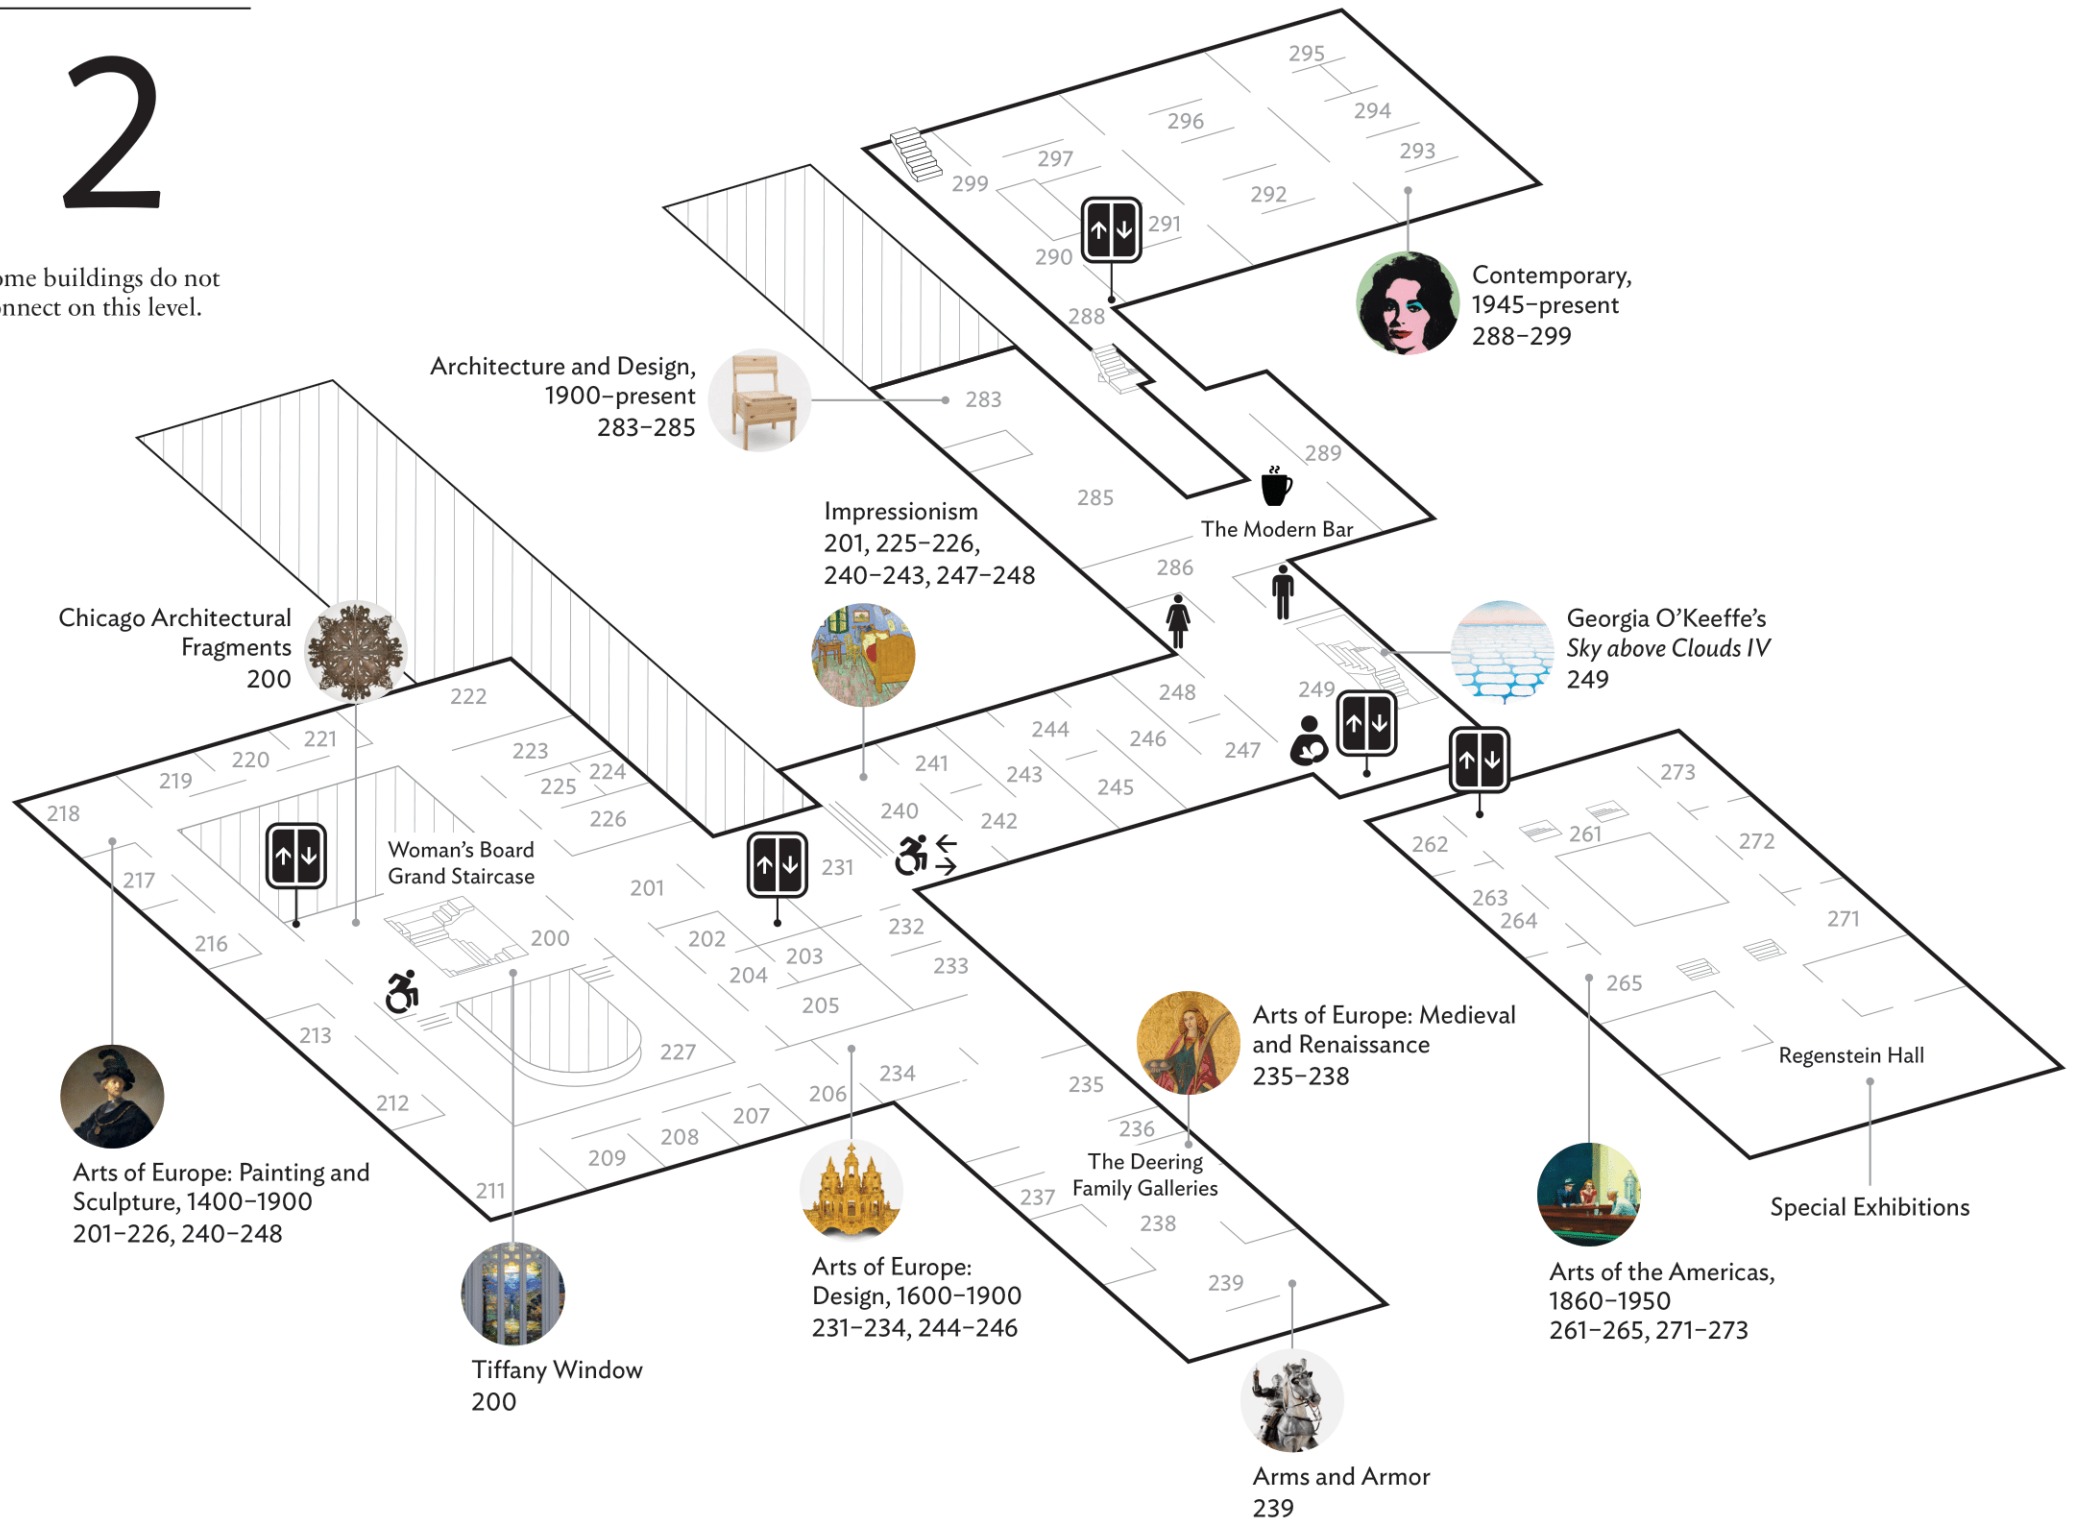

Ramp

Escalator

2

Some buildings do not connect on this level.

The Modern Bar

Ramp

Elevator

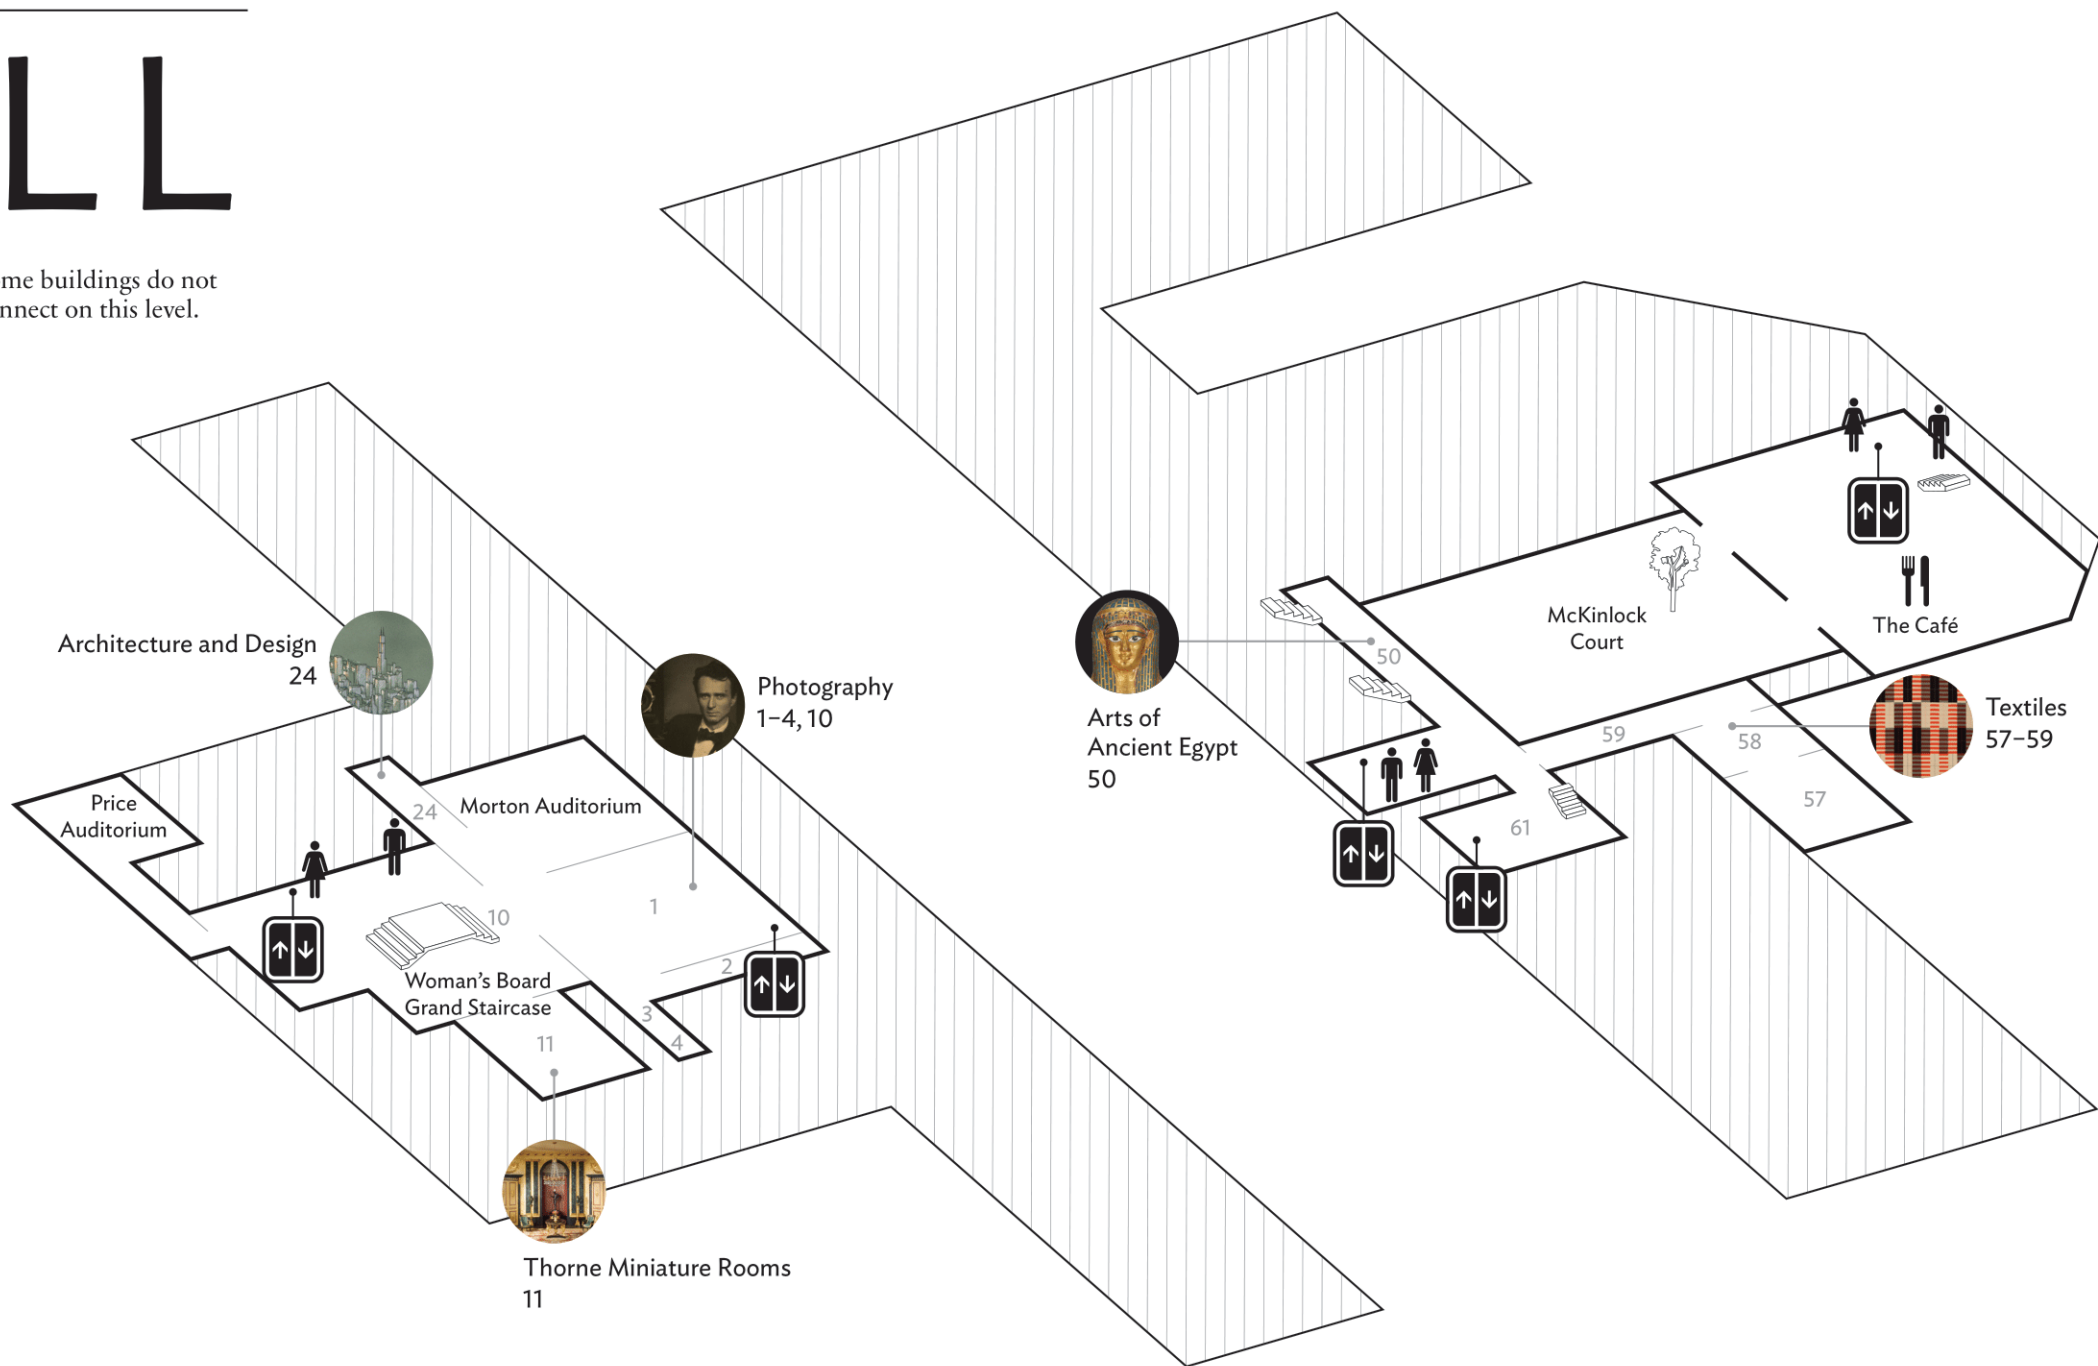

Restrooms

Infant Care Room

LL

Some buildings do not connect on this level.

 The Café

 Elevator

 Restrooms

3

Some buildings do not connect on this level.

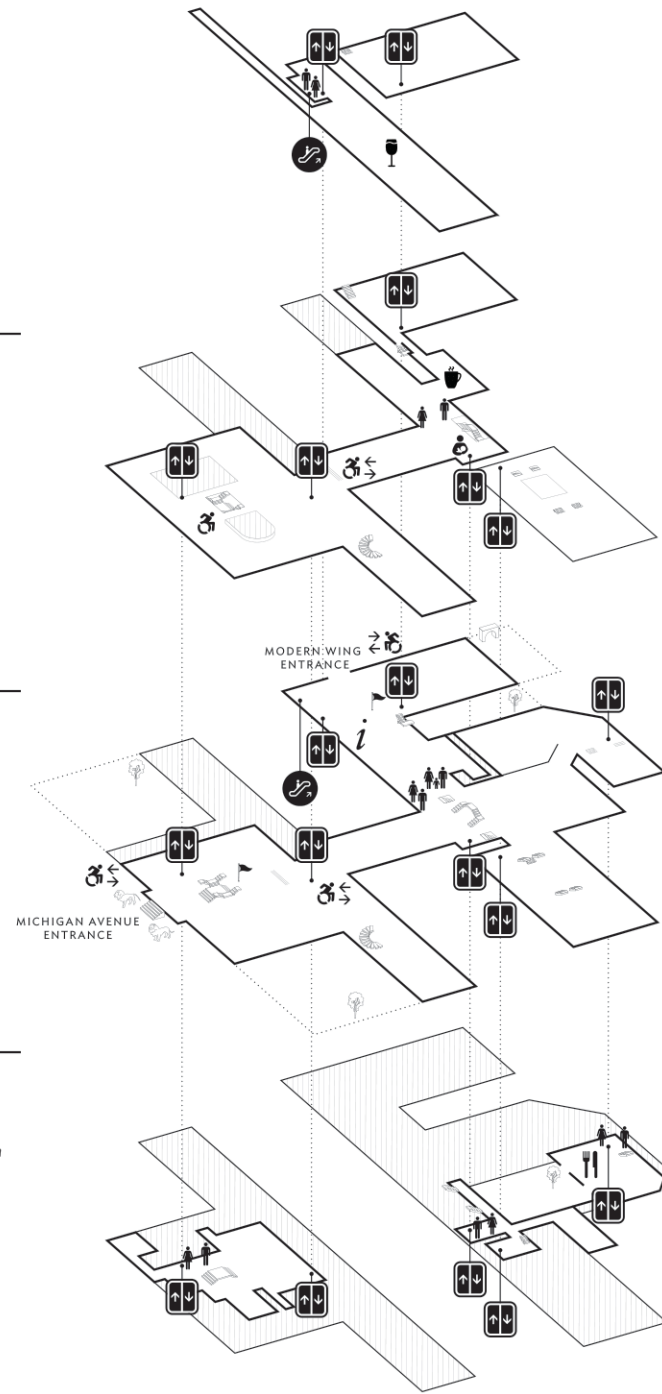

- The Member Bar
- Elevator
- Escalator
- Restrooms

3

2

1

LL

- The Member Bar
- The Modern Bar
- The Café
- Elevator
- Escalator
- Information
- Gallery Tour Starting Location
- Restrooms
- Family and Gender-Neutral Restroom
- Infant Care Room
- Ramp

WHAT TO SEE IN AN HOUR

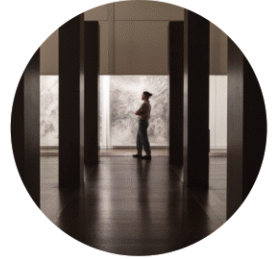

Short on time? Here's a must-see guide to the Art Institute. If you entered at Michigan Avenue, start at the top. If you entered through the Modern Wing, go in reverse order. Scan the QR code to learn more about each work.

Agnes Northrop and Tiffany Studios'
Hartwell Memorial Window
Gallery 200, 2nd level

Buddha Shakyamuni Seated
in Meditation (Dhyanamudra),
Tamil Nadu, India
Gallery 140, 1st level

Andō Gallery
Gallery 109, 1st level

Armor for Man and Horse,
Southern Germany
Gallery 239, 2nd level

Georges Seurat's
A Sunday on La Grande
Jatte—1884
Gallery 240, 2nd level

Vincent van Gogh's
Self-Portrait
Gallery 241, 2nd level

Georgia O'Keeffe's
Sky above Clouds IV
Gallery 249, 2nd level

Grant Wood's American Gothic
Gallery 263, 2nd level

Edward Hopper's Nighthawks
Gallery 262, 2nd level

Ettore Sottsass's
Carlton Room Divider
Gallery 285, 2nd level

Pablo Picasso's
The Old Guitarist
Gallery 391, 3rd level

Cindy Sherman's Untitled #92
Gallery 296, 2nd level

Digital Engagement supported by
Bloomberg Philanthropies

Airline partner of the museum of the Art Institute of Chicago

The Chicago Park District generously supports all activities at the Art Institute of Chicago. The Art Institute of Chicago is grateful to Glenn and Claire Swogger and the Redbud Foundation for their extraordinary sponsorship expanding the museum's free admission program to Chicago teens under the age of 18.